Recommendations for entertaining books

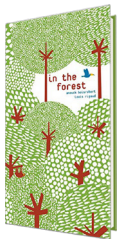

6–11 years

SAUVE QUI PUE (FRENCH ONLY)

AUTHOR: Hélène Bernier and Richard Petit
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Andara

Once upon a time, in the town of Nésensible, there lived a skunk named Chanel who was determined to get rid of her terrible smell. Would she ever succeed? Psst! This easy-to-read book is perfect for kids who like funny stories. Great for beginner readers.

IN THE FOREST

AUTHOR: Sophie Strady
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Tate Publishing

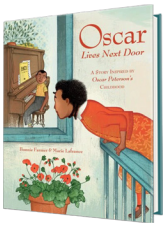

The Amazon rainforest comes alive in Dans la forêt du paresseux, a book that also happens to be a work of art. Written in simple, poignant language, it gives young readers a window into one of Earth's natural wonders, teaching them about the delicate tropical ecosystem. Far from evoking darkness and pessimism, these pages inspire hope.

MONSTRES EN VRAC (FRENCH ONLY)

AUTHOR: Élise Gravel
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Les 400 coups

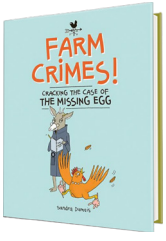

Who doesn't dream of having their very own pet monster? At the Monsterium, they come in all shapes and sizes–hideous, dapper, lazy . . . There's something for everyone! Fortunately, there are monster obedience classes for parents, teachers, and even kids. Read about different kinds of monsters and where they come from in this laugh-out-loud book.

OSCAR LIVES NEXT DOOR

AUTHOR: Bonnie Farmer
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Owlkids Books Inc.

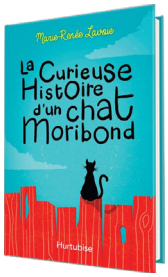

Set in 1930s Saint-Henri, this story is about the legendary jazz pianist Oscar Peterson. It traces his passion for music, from his trumpet-playing days to his discovery of jazz piano, against the backdrop of a Montreal that barely resembles the city we know today. Using simple language, the author introduces readers to a great artist.

CRACKING THE CASE OF THE MISSING EGG

AUTHOR: Sandra Dumais
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Owlkids Books Inc.

This delightful comic book is guaranteed to make you smile. On a day like any other, the unthinkable happens at the henhouse: someone steals the mother hen's egg! Who would do such a thing? Inspector Biquette takes the case, but will he be able to solve the mystery? Only one way to find out!

LA CURIEUSE HISTOIRE D'UN CHAT MORIBOND (FRENCH ONLY)

AUTHOR: Marie-Renée Lavoie
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Hurtubise

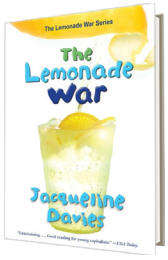

This is the curious tale of Ti-Chat, an endearing, undersized cat who can't seem to stay alive! Ti-Chat's nine lives are such a roller coaster that there's no time to be bored. Things get so confusing that, when he winds up in an alley in Quebec City, he thinks he's in Australia.

L'ARRIVÉE INOPINÉE DE LA PATATE POILUE (FRENCH ONLY)

AUTHOR: Élise Rivard
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Pierre Tisseyre

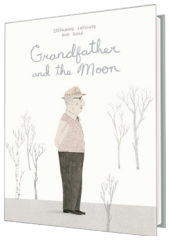

In a remote village, far from the hustle and bustle of the big city, three friends settle in for an uneventful summer vacation. But everything changes when an enormous potato arrives on the scene. All of a sudden, sitting around doing nothing is no longer an option: it's up to the young trio to save their village from a spud on the rampage!

THE LEMONADE WAR, BOOK 1

AUTHOR: Jacqueline Davies
PUBLISHING HOUSE: HarperCollins

With summer winding down, siblings Evan and Jessie decide to open a lemonade stand and see who can sell the most lemonade. While Evan is an excellent salesman, Jessie is a math whiz. The competition is fierce and not always fair. Will this innocent game leave a sour taste in their mouths?

GRANDFATHER AND THE MOON

AUTHOR: Stéphanie Lapointe
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Groundwood Books Ltd

When the young heroine of this story learns she's won a trip to the moon, she can't wait to tell her grandfather, who's always told her to reach for the stars. Unfortunately, nothing goes as planned. Reminiscent of a fable, this heart-warming graphic novel reveals that sometimes, it's okay to question your dreams.

GOLAM - VOLUME 1 - THE SON OF THE MOON

AUTHORS: Nicolas Sauge and Sylvain Dos Santos
PUBLISHING HOUSE: Le Lombard

Fantasy enthusiasts will love this thrilling adventure! Petty thief Mehdi has no choice but to take the entrance exam at Hikmadrassa, the most famous alchemy school on the continent. He doesn't know a thing about spells or how to conjure Golams. But when he discovers he possesses a magical power, he sets out on a quest to conquer a new world and learn the truth about his past.

These recommendations can be adapted to your child's interests.

© Alloprof

alloprof parents